LOYOLA HOSTS JAPANESE EXCHANGE STUDENTS

Loyola of Montreal is currently hosting 27 Japanese exchange students and two professors from Kansai University of Foreign Studies, Osaka, Japan.

The 20 girls and 7 boys, who are on campus from July 8 to August 3 studying Canadian culture, politics and conversational English, are participants in the ENCOUNTER CANADA PROGRAM, sponsored by the INNWUIT COMMITTEE, a local group of students and faculty members. They are living with families from all sections of Montreal.

Last year 18 members of the INNWUIT COMMITTEE spent 6 weeks at Kansai under the sponsorship of professors Soichiro Ooi and Yoshio Kawatake. The visit of the 27 students, accompanied by professors Ooi and Kawatake, is a direct result of that trip.

The students will be received by Governor-General Roland Michener on July 20, and will attend a civic reception given by Mayor Jean Drapeau on August 3.

Following the end of classes at Loyola on August 3, the students will embark on a 3 week tour of Canada and the Western US before returning to Japan.
